going deeper

1. What specific activities of our church do you think make the most significant impact on the community around us? Why do these actions make the impact they do?
2. What do you find yourself naturally agreeing with in 1 Corinthians 13? What do you find yourself resisting or surprised by in the same passage?
3. How do Matthew 7:22-3 and Matthew 22:37-40 compliment the text of 1 Corinthians 13?
4. Reflect on your past and describe the differences between a time you served primarily out of guilt and/or obligation versus when you served out of love.
5. In your own life, what ways do you think you help display God's love for all people?
6. Finish this thought and share with your group: Imagine if we all responded to the Spirit's promptings and practiced our spiritual gifts with love...
7. What practical steps can you take to grow in acting out of love, instead of obligation?
